

Status Update: Course Guide Project

Late Spring 2009

As of Monday, June 1, we are pleased to announce Course Guide is “live” and available for use by the campus community and public. It is debuting with students and advisors who are participating in SOAR, 2009.

Course Guide is available to everyone with a UW-Madison NetID by logging into My-UW at my.wisc.edu and clicking the Course Guide tab. Those without a NetID can use the public Course Guide at mycourseguide.wisc.edu. In addition, it is accessible from the online Undergraduate Catalog at <http://pubs.wisc.edu/ug/>.

Features available through the Course Guide include:

- Official Course Information
- Current and future term/semester information
- Links to the Schedule of Classes
- Links to department websites
- Browse by Course Title, Subject and School/College
- Course Detail including time/day/room information

New features of Course Guide, scheduled to be released this summer and fall, include browsing by instructor, the ability to create and save lists of favorite courses and create semester plans, advanced search capabilities, and a class schedule builder.
